

Ali Farzat biography

Ali Farzat is one of the leading political cartoonists of the Arab world. His work has appeared for thirty-five years in major Arab daily newspapers as well as in Le Monde and other international publications. Farzat has served as the head of the Society of Arab Cartoonists since 1980 and has won many awards, including the prestigious Prince Claus Award in 2002. Farzat is Shakespearean in his productivity. He has created more than 15,000 caricatures. He is now in his fifties and lives in Damascus with his wife and family.

علي فرزات